SARATOGA—A BACKWARD LOOK

In the year 3959 an historian of early American folkways discovered that 2,000 years ago, in the month and in the state known respectively as August and New York, certain of the inhabitants interested in contests of speed between individuals of that extinct species the Thoroughbred horse, were accustomed to gather at a place of mineral springs still known as Saratoga where 1 year old horses were offered for sale to the highest bidder in a paper medium of exchange called money. Buried under a mound of rubble, where once stood the flourishing hamlet of Middleburg in the State of Virginia, archaeologists uncovered between foundation walls of a still earlier brick building, remnants of a newspaper called The Chronicle.

This file provided a mine of information about the customs of the time. It appeared that the young horses, male and female, commonly called yearlings, were slowly transported hundreds of miles in gasoline propelled vehicles from the places they were reared to the aforementioned Saratoga. Here they were placed for safekeeping in wooden buildings with boxlike subdivisions and fed on cereals grown in the earth. From thence they were led forth to be inspected by those who came to buy, their various virtues being extolled by the sellers. Great store was set by the speed of their parents, whose exploits upon the race course were recited loudly and at length. The perfection of every animal, both as to make and shape, was also descanted upon.

Those who came to buy listened to the tales of the sellers, everyone in his own fashion, some earnestly, some disdainfully, some not at all. Some, mistrusting themselves, preferred to listen to the tales of others, trainers, stud managers and sundry wise men. Those inspecting the horses to be sold assumed strange attitudes, cocking their heads from side to side and squatting upon their heels.

After night had fallen the young horses were led into a small arena, ringed about with buyers seated upon chairs and illuminated with light generated by the falling of water. Upon a box overlooking the arena stood a man who repeated the tales of the buyers, but in louder tones, gazing the while above two half moons of glass perched upon his nose that he might see the better. Up and down the arena ran his henchman, calling upon the buyers to exchange their paper money for horses. Those who paid heed to these exhortations, signified their intention to buy in divers ways, some by shouts, some by the waving of hands, and some by the flick of an eyebrow.

So did the horseman of these far off days traffic amongst themselves until all the horses had changed hands, the sellers retiring to their home farms in order to prepare more young horses for sale the following summer, the buyers to determine in contests of speed the wisdom of their purchases.

It was not until the year 2001 that scientists financed by the Grayson Foundation, a horsemen's research organization, having previously solved all major problems of disease and unsoundness, turned their attention to heredity and through the selective use of electric currents were able to eliminate in the mating process all chromosomes except those transmitting maximum speed factors. Although this discovery within a few decades made most Thoroughbreds capable of running a mile in sixty seconds, the lack of similar progress in their legs and hearts caused horses to break down after only one or two races. The consequent dissatisfaction of vast numbers of persons placing wagers on the outcome of such races, already deeply aroused by mounting state taxes on their bets, led to public outcry against horse racing and in favor of the growing pastime of inter planetary missile racing which was thereupon placed under the guidance of the United Nations Racing Commission. Horse race betting was banned, Thoroughbred and Standardbred breeds soon became extinct, leaving only the various other strains of horses and ponies to provide health and recreation for the inhabitants of the earth.

The only surviving mementos of this ancient sport are the objects which may still be seen in the National Museum of Racing at Saratoga, just as they were placed there over 2,000 years ago.

Racing's Modern Age

Raleigh Burroughs

A review of racing's advances in the last 25 years reveals that the patrons of the sport and persons engaged in and affiliated with it have much to be thankful for.

In the short period of 2 1/2 decades such wondrous considerations as the daily double, the quinella (in some places), night racing, twin programs and nine races daily have been made available to horse-park habitués.

Besides these material advantages, the customer enjoys comforts beyond the fanciest dreams of his grandpappy.

In the '20's, if any two-buck bettor had the temerity to ask for a "grandstand lounge," he would have been ruled off for "actions detrimental to the best interests of racing." Now the tracks provide lounges without being asked.

The wealthier clients have parterre boxes, Turf clubs, elevators, waiters at their elbows ready to pour or pass on the latest paddock tip.

The horsemen get bigger purses, the jock's fees are the highest ever, and the trainers, stablehands and officials - to mint a maxim - never had it so good.

The several states that have legalized pari-mutuel betting within their borders have hit the jackpot, without putting up a nickel. What some of them drag down would have taken care of their fiscal problems in the fiscal year of July '33 to July '34.

And the politicians have profited. They have found a place to store their loyal (but lazy and incompetent) constituents between elections. If you feel irked at the fellow behind the mutuels window who is holding a conversation with a friend while you're waiting to buy a ticket, don't get noisy. Remember, he is a loyal party man.

Through the years, racing has moved onward and upward, with benefits to all. I am sure that it will continue to do so, and that those responsible for its advancement will lend willing ear to advice beneficial to the sport and the people in it.

Aid To Worriers

For that reason, I feel I should drop into the suggestion box, an idea that occurred to me at Monmouth Park on the afternoon of July 25. It was born during the long pause after the finish of the Monmouth Handicap.

When this thing struck me it seemed so momentous that I ought to have it copyrighted or patented or something. But that would mean a lot of bother and lawyers; and then I'd have to sell it to the tracks, who are notoriously slow to grasp innovations. On top of that, after I had sold it to Wheeling Downs, say, maybe Belmont, say, would grab the idea and not want to pay royalties, and I should have to sue 'em for infringement at the risk of having my press pass lifted.

No, I'm not going to try to make a nickel out of it.

Here it is, and stand back a little, because the full impact of this thing might hurt somebody.

My idea is to provide portable retiring rooms for owners who are sweating out disqualifications!

I haven't worked out all the details yet, but they should be designed along the lines of those cabanas in which French girls shed their street clothing before going in beaching.

Worrying owners could shed their inhibitions out of sight of the crass sportsmen who are shouting, "Take it down!"

The retiring rooms would be air-conditioned and sound-proof, for owners who worry out loud.

There will be a portable bar, and a generous supply of cigarettes, without filters; because who cares about lungs at a time like that.

Twice, I have seen ladies ushered into winners' circles with great fanfare - after fouls that weren't noticed by anyone but the people who were watching the race - and then released from winner's circles with no ushering at all.

In both cases, the ladies conducted themselves gallantly. If they had tears to shed, they didn't shed them. But our society has no right to put flesh and blood to such a test.

SOME day, SOME lady is going to cut loose and say what she actually thinks about the complaining jockey or the stewards or the guys who handle the film patrol, and she'll be detrimental to racing as all heck.

Atty Persse In America

Few people would be surprised to learn that Atty Persse (one of the greatest trainers of modern times) came from a sporting family. His father was a keen hunting man and the owner of a number of good 'chasers. His uncle, Burton Persse, was Master of the Galway Blazers for 37 years, at the end of which time he was succeeded by another uncle, de Burgh Persse, who in turn handed over to a cousin, Lord Clanmorris.

Atty (a childish corruption of Harry), who was born in June, 1869, was supposed to be going into the flourishing family business of making whisky, for the Persses had for many years owned the Galway Distillery. As so often happens, however, the best-laid parental plans failed to take into account the innate character of the offspring, and young Atty, who had spent every minute of his holidays and vacations from Cheltenham and Oxford riding, hunting and point-to-pointing, had diametrically opposite views to his parents on the rival merits of distilling and steeple-chasing.

One of the leading owner-trainers in America at the time was Bob Hooper, who raced jumpers under the name of "Mr. Chamblet." Having seen the young Irish amateur ride, he was so impressed that he engaged him to ride all his horses. The arrangement was mutually satisfactory and extremely successful.

Two of the good horses in this stable, which quickly helped Atty Persse to the top of the tree, were Duke of Abercorn and Caraccas. The former was a young 'chaser, of whom American critics declared "a better fencer never lived." In 1896 he won five out of his six races and only lost his unbeaten record when a stable-lad had to be substituted for Atty, who had been put out of action by a bad fall in the previous race.

Caraccas was a champion hurdler, and it is interesting to note that this tough stayer, similarly described by his countrymen as the "best hurdle-racer ever seen," was brother to the speedy Americus, whose maximum distance was five furlongs and who was to have so much influence on British bloodstock through his daughter, Americus Girl, great-grandam of Fair Trial.

While in America, Atty Persse was asked to supervise the construction of the course at Morris Park. Thus he left his mark in the country for all time, for he sent for a man from Ireland and had the course made as a facsimile of Baldoyle.

Fascinating details of the teething troubles of a great sport in its infancy emerge from reminiscences of one of Mr. Persse's age. For example, there was an absurd rule at the time in the United States that "when a horse is disqualified any other horse belonging to the same owner shall be disqualified also."

On one occasion "Mr. Chamblet" ran two horses, White Garters and Diversion, in a steeplechase. White Garters won with Diversion second a distance ahead of any other runner, but the winner was objected to for going the wrong side of a flag, which had accidentally (?) been moved from its proper position. The objection was sustained with the result that Diversion also was disqualified.

The story of those two years in America, which established him as a top-class international amateur, would be incomplete without quoting a conversation at a dinner following a big steeplechase, of which Atty Persse had ridden the winner.

The successful owner asked his jockey across the table: "Now, Mr. Persse, just what do you consider to be the first and primary asset of a racehorse?"

He was slightly put out to receive the answer in one word - "Speed."

"Yes, yes," he said rather tartly. "And after that?"

"More speed."

"Yes, yes," he said again. "But after that?"

"Still more speed!"

SARATOGA SALES – TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY, 11th and 12th

News from the STUDS

VIRGINIA

J. L. WILEY, AGENT

One of the busiest horsemen at Saratoga promises to be J. L. Wiley, who, besides offering a large consignment of his own on Wednesday night, will serve as agent in the sale of several other groups in the vendue. The largest of these is, in fact, the biggest single bunch of racing prospects at the opening session. These 12 yearlings include the sale's sold Crafty Admiral colt and One Count filly, a daughter of Princely Gift and two sons of Pet Bully.

Crafty Admiral, sire of Crafty Skipper and Master Palynch, is represented by a colt out of the good producer Allure, second in the Maryland Futurity. She is a full sister to the Santa Susana Handicap victor Femme Fatale, dam of Salon.

The filly by Airmans Guide's sire, One Count, is from a 14-race winner. The next dam was a three-quarters sister to that superb race mare Vagrancy, dam of Black Tarquin, Vulcania and Hyvania.

One of the colts by Kit's Pet's sire, Pet Bully, is a half brother to the Lafayette Stakes winner Black Sambo, and to the dam of the Mexican stakes stars Nedanus and Chayotero. The other son of Pet Bully is the first foal of a winning full sister to the Burch Memorial captor Informant and the good-class G-Two, and half sister to Helianthus.

The remaining colt offered by Mr. Wiley as agent is a son of the record-breaking $581,910 earner Mark-Ye-Well, whose first foals are now racing at two, out of a winning half sister to Director J. E. and to Anchors Aweigh's dam.

Likely to attract the most interest among the Wiley, agent, fillies is a half sister, by Panaslipper's sire *Solar Slipper, to the $535,505 earner Clem, the double Sacramento Inaugural Handicap captor Silverado and the Canadian Oaks victor Miss Ardan. Dam of this member of her sire's first American crop is a 100% producer. Also a member of her sire's initial American crop is a daughter of the English Derby winner *Arctic Prince from a winning half sister to the Hyde Park Stakes scorer Unbridled.

Another sire being represented by a filly from his first crop is the $207,292 earner Correspondent, who took the Hollywood Gold Cup and set a new track record in the Blue Grass Stakes. His daughter, from the Panorama mare *Golden Vale, is a late addition to the consignment.

So is an imported filly by Princely Gift-*Aromatic III, by Owen Tudor. Princely Gift's first crop sold well at English auctions last season. A record-breaking sprinter, he was one of the last British-bred performers by the late great *Nasrullah.

Sword Dancer's sire, Sunglow, is represented among the offerings of Mr. Wiley as agent by a half sister to the stakes-placed Bold Style and Display Style, and to the record-setting Hair Stylist. Their dam, Stylistic, who has produced eight other winners, ran third herself in the New England Juvenile Handicap. Completing the consignment is a filly by Errard, sire of Errard King, Laffango and Mr. Paradise, out of an eight-race winning and 100% producing-from-starters half sister to Master Fiddle and Caltha.

KENTMERE FARM YEARLINGS

The only Saratoga yearlings by *Double Eclipse, rated second only to the American-bred Prince Simon on the English Three-Year-Old Free Handicap after victories in the Princess of Wales' and Jersey Stakes, will be offered by Tyson Gilpin's Kentmere Farm, Boyce, Va., either on its own account or as agent. Both the Kentmere consignment and that of Kentmere, agent, have been split, with part selling on Tuesday and part on Wednesday. A filly from the first American crop by the former South African stallion, a Kentmere home sire, is one of the two offerings on Tuesday evening. The dam is a 100% producing daughter of the Selima Stakes winner Ficklebush, from the family of Seabiscuit, Brownian and Determine.

Kentmere's other Tuesday offering is the sale's only son of Encore's sire, More Sun. This colt is the first foal of a full sister to the Champagne Stakes and Long Branch Handicap captor Beau Fond.

The only Saratoga yearlings by *Aurialia and *King's Evidence are included in the half a dozen racing prospects to be sent into the sales ring by Kentmere Farm as agent on Tuesday.

There are two fillies, both first foals, by *Aurialia, a good sire in England. One is a gray daughter of a full sister to the $215,027 earner Chevation. The grandam, Fairy Chant, accounted for the Everglades and Gazelle Stakes, Pimlico Oaks, Santa Margarita and Beldame Handicaps herself; and is a half sister to the $148,104 gleaner Rose Trellis.

Another producing half sister to that pair foaled the Kentmere, agent, filly by Polynesian, sire of Poly Hi, Darling Adelle, Alanesian and Pink Velvet.

This yearling's dam is by Fairy Manhurst, another of whose daughters foaled Saratoga's only gelded offering, a son of the English two-year-old champion, 2,000 Guineas victor and successful young sire *Our Babu.

Representing the first crop by the Windsor Castle and Prince of Wales' Stakes captor *King's Evidence is a colt out of a 19-race winner and producer.

CARTER THORNTON

The only Saratoga yearlings by Mameluke, Primate and Rejected will make up the offerings of Carter Thornton, of Threave Main Stud, Paris, Ky.

First Minister's sire, Primate, is represented by a colt, first foal of a winner from a sturdy family.

A 100% producer foaled the colt from the first crop by the $549,500 earner Rejected, winner of the Westerner Stakes, Oakland, Santa Anita, American and San Pasqual Handicaps, Hawthorne and Hollywood Gold Cups.

Patty Choice's sire, Mameluke, has a filly out of the Mary Dyer Stakes second Black Chiffon, good producing half sister to the La Jolla Handicap winner Oats and to the dam of the Kentucky Oaks captor Lori-El.

The only Saratoga colt by Sword Dancer's sire, Sunglow, will be sold by Carter Thornton as agent. This yearling is the first living foal of a winning daughter of a half sister to Helianthus and Informant.

MEREWORTH FARM

The largest single consignment of yearlings to the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Yearling Sales is that of Mereworth Farm, Lexington, Kentucky, with 24 yearlings. Representatives of many of the top stallions, native or imported, are to be found amongst the 9 fillies and 15 colts. There are two fillies and a colt by Nashua, and all of the remaining 21 are by different individual sires, such as Greek Ship, *Royal Serenade, Crafty Admiral, *Our Babu, War Admiral, Roman, Shut Out, Spy Song, *Turn-To, On Trust, etc. Out of this collection buyers will find it easy to get just what they have in mind. G. G.

ODDS OR EVENS

To those Thoroughbred owners and enthusiasts who are interested in numerology, top this if you can. Two fillies who will be in contention for highest priced honors at this year's Saratoga Yearling Sales - August 10th through 14th, have hip numbers 111 and 222. Hip #111 is a chestnut filly by RIBOT out of Golden Marie, by Goyama, consigned by The Barracks, Charlottesville, Virginia. This is RIBOT'S first crop; this filly is also the first yearling by RIBOT to be sold at public auction and is the first RIBOT to be sold Wednesday night, August 12th (the other Ribot being a colt from Mrs. George P. Greenhalgh's consignment). In addition RIBOT, himself, is number 1 of undefeated champions having raced successfully in Italy, France and England.

Hip #222 is a bay filly from Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Hardin's Newstead Farm, by Battlefield out of Legendra. Legendra has had three produce sell at Saratoga; the first two being the stakes winners HASTY DOLL and RICH TRADITION. The third is the now 2-year-old Sky Clipper, winner by 10 lengths of his first outing this season. This filly's sire, Battlefield, was the leading 2-year-old of his year and was the winner of 22 races. Don't forget Legendra is by *Challenger the 2nd.

BOWL OF CHERRIES

To those who believe that the life of a horse trainer is just a bowl of cherries, Eddie Nelay relays the following excerpt taken from real life. SCENE: One of the New York tracks. A trainer is standing near the end of a barn and is approached by a stranger . . .

Stranger: "Are you the trainer of this outfit?"

Trainer: "Yes."

Stranger (pulling out his wallet and showing credentials): "I'm from the Labor Department and am here to investigate any violation of wage and hour laws. How many employees do you have; I'd like to interview them."

Trainer: "You won't find any trouble here. I have only six horses and use two grooms. They're on the 40-hour week and I pay them $70 each."

Government Man: "No other employees?"

Trainer: "Well, there's an exercise boy. He works 30 hours and gets $90."

Government Man: "Is that all?"

Trainer: "Not exactly. There is one more, a fellow who works around here all the time, just for food and a place to sleep. You won't get much out of him though; you see, he's kind of feeble minded and . . ."

Government Man (interrupting eagerly): "That's just the man I want to interview! When can I talk to him?"

Trainer: "You're talking to him now."

GOOD JUVENILE BY *MY BABU

With the last crop of foals that he left in Europe before his arrival at Spendthrift in July, 1956, *My Babu has sired what looks like a very good filly in Panga, who is unbeaten to date in two starts. At the Newmarket July Meeting Panga was an easy winner of the 1000 pounds added Princess Stakes.

She is out of the Big Game mare Pyrethrum.

HALF-SISTER TO DAN CUPID

Favorite in a field of eleven in the Prix de la Muette over five furlongs at Longchamp was Mrs. P. A. B. Widener's Vixen's Gain who ran out a four lengths winner.

Bred by her owner, she is by Oil Capitol, out of the *Sickle mare Vixenette and so is a half-sister to the same owner's Dan Cupid who was beaten only a short-neck in the Prix du Jockey Club, equivalent of the French Derby.

TOMMY ROOT

Tommy Root, famed Thoroughbred trainer is in Lexington, Ky., in search of a Bluegrass farm. Mr. Root plans to condition, train, and recuperate sore horses, in the Keeneland Race Track area. His well known ability should prove an asset to Central Kentuckians. Among the stakes performers that Root has saddled are White Skies, Circus Clown, and Simmy.

NEW TYPE STARTING GATE AT CALGARY TRACK

The new starting gate put into operation this season at Calgary's Victoria Park race track is believed to be unique in a number of ways. Built by the Exhibition & Stampede, operators of the track, at a cost of $15,000, the 10-stall gate is electronically controlled and embodies the finest features of starting gates in Canada and the U. S. The individual stall doors, which open to form a 'V' rather than the conventional right angle, are push-button operated. The locks of the centre-opening gates were specially designed by Dominion Bridge Co., maker of the gate. They are precision-made with all inside parts case hardened to provide long wear. Each lock has a special lever to compensate for any excessive wear in hinge pin and locking device.

Stall gates are opened by a coil spring, which is manually compressed before the start of a race. The push-button spring release is energized by an electric magnet. There is also a double-acting four-pole limit switch wired in series with the push-button, and a relay to energize the electric magnet in the closed positions. Instantly the gates open the power is automatically cut off to the electro-magnet and to the two bells installed in the mechanism. Everything is dead after release until the spring is again compressed.

Another feature is the two-bolt latch on each rear stall door which locks automatically when closed, enabling the starter's assistants to merely slam the gate, rather than fooling around with a manually operated bolt latch. The new gate, which was built under the watchful eye of George Dunn, official starter on Prairie race tracks, considerably cuts down the 'make-ready' time between races and makes it one of the fastest presently operating anywhere. All stalls in the gate are padded.

Saratoga Yearling Sales August 10 - 14

Yearling buyers are naturally looking for racing prospects that will quickly return their costs, not only in the thrill and satisfaction of owning a winner, but also in cold, hard and highly useful cash. For four decades such yearling bargains have been found abundantly at the Saratoga Yearling Sales, conducted each August by the Fasig-Tipton Co., at historic Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

While the tradition of Saratoga yearling bargains goes back to Man o' War, it is also as modern as jet transportation or atomic energy.

The most recent yearling crop to have raced a full season is that which passed through the auction rings in 1957.

And what were the results when this group of sales yearlings reached the tracks as two-year-olds in 1958?

According to the authoritative American Racing Manual, 1959, the two most successful bargain yearlings of that season were sold at Saratoga. In fact, three of the top five bargains were Saratoga products.

Restless Wind, a $10,000 purchase by Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Person's Llangollen Farm, won the Tremont and Prairie State

THE CHRONICLE

Stakes, Arlington and Washington Park Futurities, the male division of the National Stallion Stakes and $281,298, a 28-fold return on his price. Rich Tradition, who cost Christopher T. Chenery $19,500, took the Schuylerville, Spinaway and Selima Stakes, and $107,825, a profit of more than five-fold on the investment. And Merry Hill, bought by Joan G. Van de Maele for $14,500, captured the Frizette Stakes and $76,839, another five-fold dividend on the purchase price.

These figures, of course, comprise only the first-season returns. Most purchases will race on for several seasons.

As usual, there will be five nightly sessions at Saratoga, Monday through Friday, during the second week of August, August 10-14. Each session will begin at 8:30 P.M.

The 151 colts and 107 fillies are the property of 54 different consignors. Mereworth Farm, one of the most important producers of market yearlings in the country, has the largest group, two dozen being offered by this newcomer to the Saratoga Sales. At the opposite end of the scale, there are 11 one-horse consignments.

These offerings come from all over the East. Addresses of the consignors show 19 from Virginia; 13 from Kentucky; five each from Maryland and New York; four apiece from New Jersey and Pennsylvania; and one each from Ohio, Rhode Island, the District of Columbia.

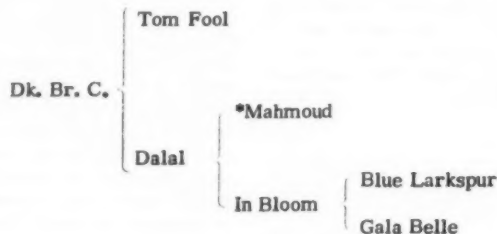

The 115 different sires represented by Saratoga yearlings include every leading sire in this country and abroad since 1945.

"Saratoga in August" is traditionally one of the most delightful interludes of the horseman's year. It furnishes opportunities to relax at Saratoga Springs, a resort that combines modern facilities with the charm and grace of a leisurely past; to renew acquaintances with old friends from all over the world over breakfast on the clubhouse porch; to watch some of the country's best runners of all age, sex and specialty groups train during the mornings and compete during the afternoons for many of America's oldest racing features; and to attend the always absorbing yearling auctions in the evenings.

The only Tom Fool yearling colt in the world owned by a Medical resident!

Selling at Saratoga, Thursday, August 13th.

From Forest Retreat's famous Gala Belle family, the dam is out of a sister to Revoked, etc.

Raised at Forest Retreat Farm (Dr. Eslie Asbury), Carlisle, Ky.

"An extraordinary individual, a replica of Tom Fool."
- (Chas. Kenney)

This is the third foal of Dalal, 2nd in Ashland Stakes and winner of allowance races in New York. Dalal was always sound as are her two good winners, Mr. Deepwell (California) and Gala Bloom.

Tom Fool, sire of Tim Tam and Jester, has out several brilliant 2-yr. olds, including Tompion, S. W. in California.

Inquiries to the owner,

Dr. Arthur K. Asbury

Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, Mass.

or

WATERFORD'S WORLDS RECORDS

A second world's record has been set at Waterford Park over the infield turf course. T. Carnegie's Equated stepped a mile and seventy yards on the grass in 1:41 4/5 to break the old mark by two-fifths of a second, and might have gone even faster with urging through the stretch. The 6-year-old gelding was well in front at the wire and Jockey Otto Crank was merely "looking and cooking" in the run through the stretch. Atesa, who set a world's standard at seven furlongs on the grass earlier in the season, was second to Equated in the record breaking run.

PROTEIN

A new advance in dog nutrition—the protein-conditioning diet. Ounce for ounce, this new kind of meal gives dogs even more protein than horsemeat or ground beef.* Protein essential for building strong muscle and bone, healthy teeth, clear eyes, shining coats. Protein to keep dogs trim and energetic. In addition, New Ken-L-Meal contains every other nutrient dogs are known to need, including Vitamins B₁₂ and A.

A new advance in palatability—The flavor shouts MEAT MEAT MEAT! An entirely new process gives it the flavor and aroma of meat . . . and even meat-red color. Testing by Ken-L Nutrition Research shows . . . dogs eat it up!

Cuts mixing time in half! Liquid is absorbed almost instantly. And this meal stays moist. Won't pack down or cake in the feeding dish. Saves clean-up time too.

Chronicle Cover

The following text was printed on page 395 of the August 16, 1879 issue of Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper to accompany our cover picture which originally appeared on the following page: - "The first meeting of the Saratoga Association for the season which closed on Saturday, August 2d, was remarkable for fine weather, large audiences, a superb track and excellent races. Up to Thursday night there had been 105 races on the regular and extra days, and as there were many noted horses there that had not appeared, it was expected that the second meeting, beginning August 5th, and closing on the 20th, would show even greater surprises than the first. On Thursday, July 31st, which was the sixth regular day, four exciting races were run - the first, being three-quarters of a mile; the second, one mile and three-quarters; the third, one mile and a furlong; and the fourth, a steeplechase of two miles and three quarters.

"The first race was won by Bramble in 1:17 1/4, with Anna Augusta second, and Oriole third. For the second, which was the sixteenth renewal of the Sequel Stakes for three-year-olds, there were seven starters. Bulwark took the lead, followed by Rochester, who soon gained first place, closely pursued by Bulwark, Grand Master, Peter Hynes, George McCullough, Willful and Lulu. Rounding the turn, Rochester ran away from his pursuers, placing a good length of daylight behind him in the first quarter mile. Passing the stand at the end of three-quarters of a mile, Rochester was six lengths in front of Peter Hynes; Lulu two lengths behind Peter, who was lapped by Grand Master; Willful fifth, and McCullough sixth. In running the next quarter Peter crept up and put out the daylight between him and Rochester, but he could not pass him. In the next quarter Rochester placed three lengths of sky behind him and Peter, Lulu coming third, while Bulwark, under whip and spur, had pushed through from the rear and was crowding Lulu. Rochester kept up his pace to the three-quarter pole on the last round, where Peter began to press him again. The lash was applied to Rochester on the turn, and he warmed up under it, extending himself for the final brush. Bulwark began to work up dangerously near in the last quarter, passing Peter Hynes, and nearly reaching Rochester's tail as Rochester dashed over the line, a winner in the fast time of 3:13 1/4. Bulwark was second, Lulu third, Peter Hynes fourth, McCullough fifth, Willful sixth, and Grand Master last. The stakes amounted to $1,400.

The third race was a selling race for a purse of $300, with the usual penalties and allowances; distance, one mile and a furlong. W. Astor's Vagrant, J. W. Bell's Maritana, and T. W. Doswell's Sunlight started for the purse. Vagrant sprang to the lead while the flag was falling, with Sunlight at his hoofs and lapping him before he reached the stand on the first furlong. These two kept yoked together, making a beautiful neck-and-neck struggle around the upper turn, down the back-stretch, around the lower turn, and into the home-stretch, with Maritana a fair third, some three lengths behind. Vagrant pulled away from Sunlight a little as they came flying up, and Maritana made a brush to better her condition by lapping Sunlight. It was of no use, however, for Sunlight put in an extra streak, again shutting out some of the daylight from Vagrant, who raced over the line a winner by a clear length in 2:01 1/4.

For the fourth contest, a free handicap steeplechase, but two horses went to the post - Reed's Trouble and Carson's Katie P. Immediately after the fall of the flag, Maney took such a pull on Trouble that McBride was forced to take the lead with Katie P., and almost instantly she led by six lengths, by which distance she took the first jump. Afterwards he increased her lead to from eight to ten lengths, by which he made the circuit of the course, both horses jumping in the cleanest possible manner. As they took the wall opposite the public stand, Maney brought Trouble up on even terms with Katie, and as they began the last three-quarters of a mile he took a decided lead, holding it by four to eight lengths to the end, winning by that distance in 5:44 1/2, amid considerable applause."

126 LB. HANDICAP RULE

In his column in "The Morning Telegraph", Bob Horwood cites Rule 267 G of the New York Rules of Racing which reads: "In all handicaps which close more than 72 hours prior to the race the topweight shall not be less than 126 pounds, except that in handicaps for fillies and mares the topweight shall not be less than 126 pounds less the sex allowance at the time the race is run." Horwood says: - "We believe Rule 267 G could very well be amended to read 'less than scaleweight at the time the race is run'. That would achieve the object of the rule, which is to prevent the topweight being less than scale and would avoid sometimes penalizing horses unduly."

IRISH WINNER FOR McSHAIN

Though not in the class of Ballymoss or Gladness, John McShain's three year old Barclay carried 118 lbs to a three lengths victory in the Shankill Handicap over 1 1/4 miles at Phoenix Park, for which he started favorite at 11-8. This was the colt's second success in two starts this season. P.T.-C.

HORSE SHOWS

Detroit

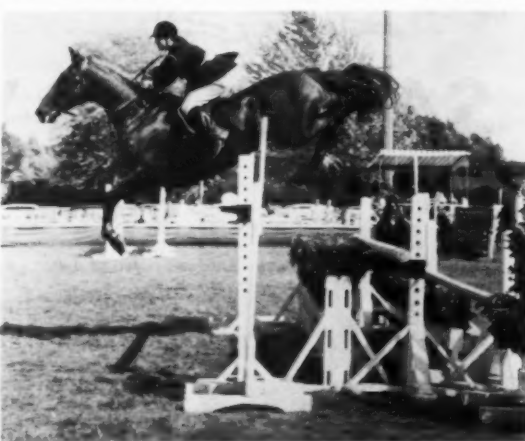

The grounds of the beautiful Bloomfield Open Hunt Club looked better than ever. They have several nice schooling areas and extra rings for the exhibitors to use, plus every kind of jump one could think of to school over.

The show was very well filled, with as many as 74 entries in some of the Junior classes. I don't know whether this is any kind of a record or not, but I do know that anyone getting any ribbon should be very proud of it.

In the Junior Hunter Division, Man O' War Farm's Avon Girl, just recently acquired from Linda Swanson of Chicago, came through to be Champion for her new owner, over Victoria Buchen's Hi Fi. The Junior Jumper Division, always popular at Detroit, was really far better filled and more exciting than the regular Jumper Division this year. Donna Meinzingers Camside Export was Champion with the popular little Supreme Lady, a palomino belonging to Janie Bugas, being Reserve.

The regular Jumper Division was small, and Mr. Si Jayne did not come with his new purchase, Windsor Castle. Consequently, the ribbons were very well divided up, and anyone of five or six horses could have been Champion going into the Stake. Mr. Oscar Riepp's old horse Challenge won and ended up Champion, with Reserve going to our good friends from Canada The Victor Siftons with their Tamerlane. The Green Jumper Division was very good with several promising new horses doing very well. John Wallace, a well known horseman from Northville, Mich., rode his wife's green horse, Delayed, to the Tri-Color, while Man O' War Farm's Rimrock was Reserve.

Cappy Smith came to Michigan for the first time and let everyone know that he was here by winning everything he could with his two good performing grays. His wife's lovely Grey Pennant was Green Conformation Champion with Mark Haven, belonging to Waverly Farm, reserve. Cappy won both Green Working and Regular Working Champion with his Passport.

J. S. Pettibone's Duke of Paeonian was Conformation Champion, with Reserve going to Dragnet, owned by the Fred Wilson's of Bloomfield Hills. N.M.B.

VIRGINIA FOUR SHOW CIRCUIT

Glenmore Hunt Club Show, Staunton, Aug. 15

Deep Run Horse Show, Richmond, Aug. 28-30

Warrenton Horse Show, Warrenton, Sept. 5-7

Grosse Pointe

This was one of the largest, well filled shows that Grosse Pointe has ever had. The weather was perfect, and the exhibitors could enjoy a swim anytime between classes; the pool at the Club is close enough so swimmers could hear what was going on in the ring and be ready for their next class.

The Junior Hunter and Equitation divisions were very large, so any ribbons won were well earned. Alice Frazer rode her Teddy Bear to the Junior Hunter Championship, and Alice Olsen was Reserve with Cravalley.

The Virginia group this year included Mr. & Mrs. Morton W. "Cappy" Smith, as well as the Pettibones and Waverly Farm, who are regulars out this way. The Green Conformation Champion was Betty Smith's lovely Grey Pennant, with Reserve going to Waverly's Castletown. Incidentally, the latter was imported from Ireland by Cappy Smith.

Cappy also did very well with his other gray, Passport, who was Champion Green Working Hunter as well as Reserve Regular Working to George Jayne's, Happy Landing.

Cappy also turned out to be a big help to his good friend Max Bonham, who had learned the day before the show that he had a heart condition that was going to keep him off jumpers for the remainder of his career. Cappy took over the reins on the great Windsor Castle and rode him to five blues which made him Champion. The night before the Stake the horse was sold to Si Jayne and Harold Marzano, both of the Chicago area. Dorothy Macleod, who rides for Mr. Jayne, took over and rode "Windsor" in the last two classes, winning the Stake on him.

The regular Conformation division was not too large, but there was lots of quality. The lovely big Duke of Paeonian was champion with Reserve going to Mrs. J. Deane Rucker's favorite old campaigner, Spanish Mint. It was nice to have Jack Payne bring Mrs. Rucker's horses back out to her home town again. N.M.B.

New Brunswick

Winning ribbons seemed to infect certain stables at the New Brunswick Horse Show. Mrs. Henry Paxson's horses dominated the green and the working divisions. Her new greys were outstanding in the green classes, with Hands Down winning the championship after tying in points with Cookie Emlen's honest young Goblin. The Saunders Family were much in evidence throughout the show with ponies, horses and children all showing successfully. Their pony Snapshot was small pony champion, while their Farnley Chive was reserve large pony champ. Harry DeLeyer's stable was another where each horse seemed to be trying to outdo the other winning ribbons. He had both the Champion and Reserve Champion jumpers.

The cool shade trees and the lake in the middle of the outside course make this a most attractive show. The management try hard to please the exhibitors and there is always a pleasant relaxed atmosphere.

Fairfield County Hunt

The Fairfield Show, under new management, was larger than ever this year, with the exception of the Conformation Division which seems to be suffering all around the country. Good weather, an exhibitors cocktail party every day, an excellent ball, and good judging all contributed to make the show the success it was.

Droves of junior riders of excellent quality kept all the equitation and junior classes filled to overflowing. Miss Wendy Hanson and her lovely grey mare, Star Chamber, made it a double victory by winning both the Junior Hunter title and the hotly contested Horsemanship Championship. Wendy is off to Europe for the summer, and this was a nice note to end her show season on.

In the Open Jumper ranks a new star appeared, and there is no doubt that he is here to stay. Bronze Wing, ridden very well by Dave Kelley, won going away. Taking up where he left off at Ox Ridge, he won the first two classes on Thursday, another on Saturday, plus a second and third to total 20 pts. to Volco's Pierre's 11.

The Green Jumpers had Shirley Weinstein at the top of the heap with Another Foggy Dawn, who won the highly contested stake over reserve champion Lillibuck, ridden by Marjorie Gill.

In the hunter ranks it seemed that gray horses had the magic touch. Rounds were most consistent in every division but when all the points were totalled Mrs. Henry Paxson's excellent hunter stable was on top in the Green Working with their newly acquired Flying Curlew, and in the large Working with Chappaqua; quite a remarkable feat considering there were over 30 entries in each. Peggy Augustus made her trip from Virginia profitable by winning the $1,000 Working Hunter Stake on Little Sailor with a lovely round.

Bobby Burke had everything his own way in the Conformation Division and was champion with Cameda. Gene Pillion and Kathy Kusner shared riding honors on Mrs. A. C. Randolph's lovely jumping Black Atom to garner their second leg on the Corinthian and become reserve champion.

After starting off slowly, Bobby Motch's Modern Design closed strong to win the stake in the Green Conformation Division and become Reserve Champion behind Barbara and Clay Camp's lovely brown, Sunset Hill, who won the model and placed consistently throughout the division.

great success in European shows on the basis of its uniform team work and its exemplary jumping style.

This year such successes have followed with a constancy which does not leave any doubt that the training of riders and horses has followed correct principles. For a long time the U. S. Team, under Coach de Nemethy, has imposed restrictions on itself and has been riding only within the framework of its training program and capabilities. It refused to interrupt this program merely for the sake of winning as long as the abilities of riders and horses were not yet good enough to do so. The emphasis was on riding in classic style and on a complete understanding between rider and horse.

Even experienced European horsemen did not understand this attitude and underestimated for this reason the possibilities of the Americans. Right before the Prix des Nations at Rome a respected Italian newspaper wrote: "Definite favorites are Italy and Germany; perhaps the French Spanish equipe." There was no word of the U. S. Team advanced into the ranks of the world champions with the win of Bill Steinkraus on Riviera Wonder in the International German Championship of the jumping riders, and the excellent results of the other team members at Aachen.

These victories were not won by chance - they are the result of consistent training under Bert de Nemethy and the self-discipline of the young American riders. These victories are even more significant as they were obtained against the top jumping riders of the world - the brothers d'Inzeo of Italy and the best German riders Thiedemann and Winkler.

To these triumphs of the U. S. Jumping Team has been added another great victory in dressage. When she entered international competition for the first time last year in Germany, Miss Jessica Newberry of New York made a surprisingly favorable impression by her excellent seat and the charm of her production. She developed within a year to a perfection which amazed the German experts. She won at Aachen a dressage test of the difficult "S" class and was second in the Grand Prix - the same test as the one which will be ridden at the Olympic Games. These results are even more remarkable in that the best riders from Sweden, France, England, Holland, Belgium, Denmark, Roumania and Germany competed - among them many participants in the 1956 Olympic Games at Stockholm - and also because Miss Newberry beat Mrs. Linsenhoff who won the bronze medal in Stockholm.

Jessica Newberry went through the test on the chestnut stallion "Forstrat" with few mistakes, with beautiful elan and natural grace which she retained in the most difficult parts of the test like the Piaffe, Passage and changes of lead. The flow and the precision of her performance were extraordinary to watch - here was an esthetic pleasure. The U. S. has in this highly talented rider a representative for the Olympic Games at Rome which promises continued success.

I have promised you for some time a report about the developments of the equestrian sports in Europe, and I am especially happy that I can use this opportunity to express my esteem for the excellent and sportsmanlike attitude of your riders.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,
Max Boden, Editor

The "Perseverance"

Dear Sir:

Your excellent publication is the only place I have ever seen much reference to coaching in the States. I know quite a few of your readers have an interest in coaching. I have just come back from a month in England and much to my delight stumbled by accident across the fact that a road coach is operated from Oxford to Blenheim Palace at least during July, and if it is successful, probably until mid-September.

Five days a week the Coach "Perseverance" leaves the Mitre Tavern at 10:30 a.m. sharp, drives the nine miles to Woodstock. The route is an attractive one and you pass the site of the Royal Agricultural Show. At Woodstock, lunch is provided at a quaint coaching inn - The Marlborough Arms; and then after lunch the coach drives through the grounds of Blenheim Palace and the passengers may, if they wish, have a tour of the interior of the palace. The coach gets back to the Mitre Tavern about 4:30. The charge is about $7.00 per passenger and this includes a good lunch.

The road coach is an old one, beautifully painted and the team is a magnificent team of Dutch Gelderlanders. This team, incidentally, won the road coach class at this year's Richmond Royal Coaching Marathon.

The day that I took the trip Air Marshall Sir Arthur Harris was on the box as an added attraction. I believe he drives quite regularly, although some days other gentlemen may be enjoying the sport. Sir Arthur was kind enough to let me drive the team back to Oxford from Blenheim and this was, of course, a great thrill.

To date the coach has not been crowded and seats are always available by just calling the Mitre in Oxford. People staying in London and wishing more information could call Miss Cummings, secretary to Mr. George Matthey, at Holborn 6988. It occurred to me that you might like to publicize this in The Chronicle so that readers who are going to be visiting England this summer could have the thrill of a genuine road coach trip.

Sincerely,

John M. Seabrook

Reversed Negatives

Dear Sirs:

Congratulations for your excellent picture coverage in the July 10 issue. Mr. Howell Jackson's hat and print dress are particularly attractive and becoming, and Mrs. George Greenhalgh's slacks and hair cut are bound to start a new fashion trend. The left-handed polo players on page 29 are also interesting; what is the hieroglyphic marking on the player's shirt?

Sincerely yours,

Sebastian Martinelli

Measuring Ponies

Dear Sir:

After reading Dr. Smith's story in The Chronicle, which had been in the "Tack Room News", I thought it would be only right if the Horse people knew the whole story, not only just what Dr. Smith had to write.

It just happens that the two instances Dr. Smith mentioned about measuring ponies, I was present. The first horse he mentioned about showing in pony classes, being measured by someone not qualified, I would like to know what right he has to say who is qualified and who is not. The horse he writes about must surely have been over the pony height or I am sure the owner would have won his case which he sure tried to with the A.H.S.A.

The second pony he wrote about was a pony Dr. Smith measured and examined and passed as a six (6) year old pony when he arrived in this Country from Ireland. This is the reason the people showed this pony in pony classes. Just before measuring and turning down this pony at the Essex Troop Horse Show, he measured a horse shown in the pony classes and told the one holding the pony, this is no pony, but after the boy told him the pony had been shown in the Garden, he said he would pass him as he did not want to contradict another Veterinarian. The pony that he next turned down had been shown and also measured in the Garden Horse Show for the past two (2) years and this pony measured exactly 14.2, but according to Dr. Smith he was 14.3 1/2 which he told the owner could be made to measure 14.2 by cutting down the pony's feet 1 1/2" when his feet were only 2 1/2" at the time.

Hope you may find time and space to print this, so that the public may know, all measuring at Horse Show, is not what it should be.

Yours truly,

T. F. Gussenhoven

Red Face Department

Dear Sir:

In reply to Miss Pellas' letter, I must offer my apologies to her, to her surviving team mates Miss Audrey Beauchamp and Miss Arvilla Taylor, to the Chronicle and to its readers.

Evidently I picked up another cross-country elimination from the chart which should not have been charged to this team and I sincerely regret the error.

It must be admitted that when I commit an error, I don't fool around with minor details - it's a real blooper!

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Friedlaender

Captain Paton

Dear Sir:

I am sure you would like to put a notice in The Chronicle about Capt. "Dick" Paton M.C. who died at the beginning of this month after completing 40 years as manager at Eglinton Hunt, near Toronto. He was known to horsemen all across Canada besides many in the U.S.A. He will be sadly missed by his host of friends.

Dick served on numerous committees and played a leading part in the running of horse shows in this part of the world including the Royal Winter Fair where he was a familiar figure.

Two generations of horsemen will remember his good advice and ready help at all times.

Yours sincerely,

Charles Kindersley, M.F.H.

With my "decompression chamber", the instant the "objection" sign goes on, the device will be lowered into place, and a representative of the track will escort the owner inside. If the owner is a lady, the representative will be permitted to accompany her to help keep her mind off her ordeal.

While the stewards are drawing straws to see who gets it, the owner will have time to freshen up and be prepared for the worst.

Win or lose, she will be able to step forth bright and smiling.

If the number comes down, the proprietress of the disqualified horse will have the option of remaining in the retiring chamber while the horse ambulance hauls it off to the backstretch.

Tommy Roberts For Color

Claims of foul also are a headache for television announcers, because TV people try to do everything in a set period of time. Six minutes for this and four minutes for that and seven minutes for something else adds up awfully fast. In no time the half hour is up and the wheat cereal program must go on.

The gent who handles the mike for the presentation ceremonies knows how much time he'll have before he is cut off, even if the chairman of the racing commission is talking. So he prepares material for so much time.

If, all of a sudden he has 15 minutes for his little old self, because of an objection, he has to do a lot of fast thinking and a lot of fast talking.

When Howard Grant, the rider of Mrs. T. Christopher's Amerigo, claimed a foul against Sword Dancer's rider, Bill Shoemaker, after the Monmouth Handicap, a young New Jersey TV talker had his bath of blood.

He was equal to it.

When arrangements were made to have the Monmouth Handicap put on by NBC, Eddie Brennan, general manager of the track, suggested Tommy Roberts for the "color". (Jack O'Hara did the race description). So Mr. Roberts got his break on a national hook-up. As everybody in New Jersey expected, "he did grand."

When the long pause came, Tommy didn't. While the stewards interviewed the jockeys and looked at the movies, Mr. Roberts interviewed Racing Secretary John Turner, Jr., and General Manager Brennan.

There was no awkward waiting, no fumbling, no embarrassment. The show went off just as it would have in the dress rehearsal they DIDN'T have.

If keeping his mike alive for those long extra minutes caused Mr. Roberts any concern, it didn't show from the out-

Afterwards he said, "All during that time, I kept thinking of what my teacher, Miss Myers, said to me when I was in grade school and she kept me in seven straight days for talking too much.

"After my seven lost afternoons, Miss Myers warned me: 'Remember this, Tommy, you'll never get anywhere talking all the time.'"

Wonder if Miss Myers was tuned in for the Monmouth Handicap.

MADAME COUTURIE

Recent visitors to the Northern Virginia horse country were Madame Jean Couturie, her daughters the Vicomtesse B. de Tarragon and Madame J.-C. Devin and the Vicomte de Tarragon, Mr. and Mrs. Howell Jackson of Middleburg acting as their hosts. Madame Jean Couturie operates the Haras de Mesnil, Savigne-l'Eveque, Sarthe, France, founded as a stud by her late husband's family in 1908. Haras du Mesnil has produced many top horses, including France's leading 1958 2-year-old Tiepoletto. Currently housed there are the stallions Tyrone, Neptune, Tosca and Antares. Tornado, belonging to the Widener family, also stood there until his death in 1958.

While in Virginia, the Couturie family also visited Mrs. Dodge Sloane's Brookmeade Farm, Paul Mellon's Rokeby Farm, Tyson Gilpin's Kentmere Farm and the Middleburg Training Center. In addition to a day of racing at Jamaica, they visited a number of the stud farms in Kentucky and then went to California where Madame Couturie's mother was born.

GARDEN STATE SALE

This year's Garden State Sale will be held at the Helis Stock Farm, Jobstown, N. J., Friday, October 9, the day before the opening of the Fall meeting at Garden State Park. A Preview Showing will be held at the farm on Thursday afternoon, October 8. For the convenience of buyers the entire group of yearlings will be sold in one session. Entries to this sale will close August 24th.

SIR ALFRED MUNNINGS

Sir Alfred Munnings, former President of the Royal Academy and the greatest equestrian painter of his generation, recently died at the age of 81. An article on Sir Alfred and his work will appear in a forthcoming issue of The Chronicle.

MOTCH DISPERSAL

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Motch, owners of Coleswood Farm, have announced they are disposing of all their horses, which includes their current show stable of Modern Design, Windsweep, The Dynasty and Orange Moon. During this season (1959), these horses have already accounted for 17 Championships and Reserve Championships.

In addition to these older horses they have for sale a number of yearlings, 2-year-olds, broodmares and foals, and the successful stallion Seven League who is by Our Boots.

The Coleswood Farm dispersal brings to an end one of this country's largest show stables, having at one time exhibited such champions as Thou Swell, Garden of Eden, Sky's Impression, etc.

The Motches have just recently purchased the beautiful Cismont Manor Farm located north of Charlottesville, Virginia. Cismont Manor will be a Thoroughbred breeding farm, a long time desire of its new owners.

The Coleswood Farm dispersal is being conducted by private contract and absolutely all of the horses are to be sold.

JUAN ARTIGAS

Juan Artigas, seven times champion jockey of Argentina, was killed on July 9th after winning the Ninth of July Stakes by four lengths. Being pulled up the horse stumbled and bumped the jockey with his head, knocking him unconscious. He fell from the saddle, was dragged by one foot and received injuries which caused death almost instantaneously.

Mrs. T. A. Randolph, M.F.H. and Mrs. Dodge Sloane at the Brookmeade yearling exhibition, Upperville, Va. (Allen - Middleburg, Va.)

ALL-MORGAN HORSE SHOW

The Junior Chamber of Commerce of Frederick, Maryland will take over the reins of the All-Morgan Horse Show from the Rotary Club of Frederick. Glenn A. Main, Jr., Jaycee President has appointed Merhle H. Duvall, Frederick County farmer, to head up a special all-member committee.

The Mid-Atlantic Morgan Horse Club is co-sponsoring body for the show. The show will be held at the Frederick Fairgrounds on Friday and Saturday, August 8th and 9th. In taking over the reins of the show from Rotary, the Junior Chamber will also acquire the services of W. L. Brittain, a Rotarian with past Jaycee service, as technical advisor.

MARYLAND FALL SALES

The Maryland Fall Sales will be held at the State Fair Grounds at Timonium, Friday, October 30. Thoroughbreds in all categories will be on offer. Breeding stock, Weanlings, Yearlings and Racing stock can be accommodated. If sufficient entries are obtained there will be a special session of Yearlings as well as a sale of Race Horses at Laurel. This sale is held under the auspices of the Maryland Horse Breeders' Association. Further particulars are available at the association's office, 2223 York Road, Timonium, Md. (P.O. Box 6845, Towson 4, Md.) or from the Fasig-Tipton Company.

JOHN SMITH-MAXWELL

Lieut.-Colonel John Douglas Hamilton Smith-Maxwell, for the last ten years hunting correspondent for "The Field", recently died after a long illness. He was not only a first-class man to hounds, but excelled as a steeplechase rider and was a marvelous judge of a horse. Readers of his hunting reports, who include people all over the world, will miss him sadly.

SARATOGA YEARLING CLASS

An advertisement of the Fasig-Tipton Company notes that four out of every five yearlings consigned to its Saratoga Summer Sales are out of stakes winners or stakes producers or out of sisters or half-sisters to stakes winners or dams of stakes winners.

H. J. ROBERTSON

Harris J. Robertson, born on the Ellerslie Farm of A. B. Hancock, Sr., near Charlottesville, Va., and lately assistant manager of A. B. Hancock, Jr.'s Claiborne Farm, Paris, Ky., recently died at the age of 50. His body was shipped to Charlottesville for burial.

THREE WINS IN ONE DAY

The popularity of hurdle racing at Monmouth Park, which continues with each day, is quite appropriate for the first race ever run here in 1870 was a two-mile hurdle race over eight hurdles, won by Lobelia, a veteran campaigner in the eastern racing circuit. On the afternoon (March 22, 1870) after winning the first 2-mile hurdle race, Lobelia won both mile heats of a 2-heat race, thus entering the winner's circle thrice in one afternoon. R.S.

THE CLUB IS DEDICATED TO THE TEACHING OF RIDING, AND CARE AND MANAGEMENT OF THE HORSE, AT THE HIGHEST ATTAINABLE STANDARDS.

It provides individual instruction and also a wide range of schedules embodying weekly and multi-weekly Courses to SUIT RIDERS OF ALL AGES, AT ALL STAGES.

The riding amenities comprise LARGE, COVERED, LIGHTED SCHOOLS, outdoor jumping-paddocks, and Cross-Country Courses all contained within its own extensive grounds. A large number of quality Club Horses are kept for the use and instruction of those who have no horses of their own available.

The Residential Club House, fully centrally heated, with its spacious Club Rooms, and the best of living accommodations, provides patrons with all that is required for comfort and relaxation in the atmosphere of an English country home. Here visitors from overseas are made very welcome; special arrangements are made for the care of young people by fully qualified persons.

Fuller particulars, illustrated Brochure, etc., are available from the Secretary on application.

ch.c., *Turn-To-Hill Rose

His dam is out of MISS DISCO and his great grandsire is NEARCO. What relation does this make him to BOLD RULER, who is out of MISS DISCO and whose grandsire is NEARCO? Not that it really matters because his dam has already proven herself both on the course and in the stud. Her first two foals are IMON and GEEARE. This is the third. And *TURN-TO certainly needs no introduction.

ch.c., Fair Trial-Banassa

His dam will go down in history as one of the greatest classic fillies of this age. This is her first living foal. And he is by one of the greatest stallions of this age, who has to date begot four classic winners as well as such eminent sires as *COURT MARTIAL, PETITION, PALESTINE. If this colt is not racing and sire material, people had better stop trying to improve the breed.

These Four Colts Are Not Bad - To Be Coming From Any One Consignor

ch.c., Aureole-Weighbridge

Breeders spend lifetimes and fortunes trying to find mares even half as good as the dam of this yearling. She has had four high-class stakes winners, including *GLORIA NICKY, leading 2-year-old of her year and head of the Free Handicap with 130 pounds. Breed her to a billygoat and she comes up with a winner. But AUREOLE is no billygoat—not with ST. CRISPIN III in his very first crop.

ch.c., Persian Gulf-Affair

If you follow racing abroad, you must know what a very fast and good racehorse ABADAN was. Well, this colt is his full brother. His famous sire has sired many a famous runner, including this year's Epsom Derby winner. And his dam can boast just about the best female line in anybody's stud book, since she descends directly, through ARABELLA, from PRETTY POLLY.

And These Five Fillies Aren't Too Bad Either.
